The blue, the fresh, the ever free!

Beaufort Harbor and the Atlantic Ocean!

THE FINEST BATHING, BOATING AND FISHING IN THE WORLD!

THE MACON HOUSE,

Morehead City, N. C.

MESSRS. PEPPER & O'CONNOR, OF RALeigh, N. C., have leased these well-known premises, which are now undergoing thorough repairs and painting, and beg respectfully to announce that the place will be

OPEN FOR THE SUMMER SEASON

ON OR ABOUT

June 1st, 1870.

The premises will be under the sole, immediate control of Mr. W. R. PEPPER, well and favorably known to the frequenters of all the most celebrated summer resorts of this State and Eastern Virginia. His reputation as a caterer will be received as a sure guarantee of the manner in which the MACON HOUSE will be conducted. Everything conducive to the comfort and convenience of visitors will be supplied.

New Bathing Houses,
Boats for Fishing and Excursion Parties,
Fishing Tackle and Bait,
A Cotillion Band,

ATTENTION PLANTERS!!

TO PLANTERS purchasing Cotton Gins, I would be pleased to call their attention to the "GULLETT STEEL BRUSH," which for superiority in ginning and cleaning the staple is warranted to excel. The staple ginned by the "GULLETT STEEL BRUSH GIN" will bring from one to one-and-a-half cents more per pound than cotton ginned by other Gins.

W. R. BAILEY.

This pervert to Radicalism, convert of Kirk, disciple of Phillips and instructor of Boyd and Long, has appealed to the few negroes, carpet-baggers and scalawags who are able to read and subscribe for the Standard. He charges us with assailing his political virtue, in saying he got his reward by Holden's appointing him Code Commissioner.

We think it no cause of offense to charge that Mr. Bailey went over for office. We have made the charge against his betters: John Pool, John McDonald, Windy Billy Henderson, Victor Barringer, William Scott, Mr. Phillips, Col. Clarke, Judge Rodman, Rev. James Sinclair, Tod Caldwell, Col. Taze. Hargrove, Kildee Lassiter, Judge Settle, Judge Dick, and Major W. A. Smith, and no one of them has had the hardihood to deny it. And no body would believe them if they did.

Major Smith talking with Democrats two years ago, said, "they were great fools not to join the Republicans and get their share while it was going, for the thing would soon play out," or words to that effect.

He told a deluded old Democrat two months ago, who like Mr. Bailey, went over too late, that he was a "d——d fool for going now after every thing had been stolen."

We would not do Mr. Bailey the injustice to say, that he had embraced Kirk, Long, Boyd and Holden, after mature reflection and upon principles of patriotism and honesty. That would be to damn him for ever, as weak in judgment and depraved in taste. Take Major Smith's doctrine, that you went for the "spoils," otherwise you are disgraced forever. That any man's sense or moral sense should lead him to your position and place is past the belief of man.

Mr. Bailey says, "does not this look like a set purpose of malice prepense, winked at if not abetted by better men to hunt down any man who severs his connection with modern Democracy? Is this entitled even to the name of wild justice? Does it not look like the aristocracy of Ku Kluxism—perhaps the "Invisible Empire?" "I hope the good people of the State," says Mr. Bailey, "will ask some one else about me before accepting the libel as true. To the chivalrous young men I may add, that Mr. Turner has in making this attack violated all sense of delicacy. We have not spoken for over twelve years, are bitter enemies, and I positively refused to appear in his habeas corpus case at Salisbury from a sense of delicacy. As to Mr. Turner I have said enough to put him in the dilemma of seeking satisfaction or stopping his libels."

Mr. Bailey's partner prosecuted us at Salisbury and Mr. Bailey sat by him when our case was called. To detain us in custody Kirk upon an affidavit prepared by Bailey, his partner, Boyden, and others had sworn that we were guilty of treason "in attempts to subvert the State government." This Bailey, Kirk and Boyden knew to be a palpable falsehood, yes, a sworn lie. Mr. Boyden said "it was due to Mr. Turner to state that there was not a particle of evidence against him." So much for Mr. Bailey's magnanimity.

Now for the enmity, malice and "satisfaction." Some twelve years ago, Mr. Bailey sued and obtained a judgment against certain parties in Granville county. Sheriff Philpot sent the money on Tuesday of Orange Court by Mr. Elijah Hester. He made no return at all on the writ. Mr. Hester paid Mr. Bailey the money, principal, interest and cost, and returned home on Friday or Saturday of the term. Mr. Bailey moved for an amercement against Sheriff Philpot for not making proper return. The motion was allowed and at the next term of the Court I appeared for Sheriff Philpot. Mr. Bailey offered to let our client off upon payment of cost, including a four dollar fee to himself.

We were on good terms and we reasoned with our then young friend upon the impropriety of his conduct. We could not agree upon the compromise he offered.—Mr. Bailey made his motion to the Court and after gently trying in vain to shame him from his course, we denounced him before the Court, declaring that money so obtained would burn an honest man's pocket, and that his course was not honest. The Court with great justice and abhorence for his conduct refused to amerce the Sheriff of Granville.

After Court Hon. B. Y. McAden was the bearer of a note from Mr. Bailey, who being in a dilemma, was in search of "satisfaction."

The note demanded in the most peremptory manner to know what we meant by such language to him in open Court. We told Mr. McAden to tell him he was a rascal for his motion to amerce, and a fool for writing the note. Mr. McAden insisted that our answer should be in writing as that was in accordance with the code. So we followed the code and wrote Mr. Bailey as nearly as we can remember, about the following note:

MR. BAILEY:—Your note is received. My language was too plain and unequivocal for you to misunderstand. My purpose was to drive you by force of public opinion, from what I regard as a most iniquitous attempt to extort money unjustly from my client.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr.

In a few days we received through the Post office, a full sheet of fool's cap closely written, in which Mr. Bailey declared he had more regard for us, than for any or all the members of the Bar. He said four pages of kind words on fool's cap to us, reminding us that it was through our kindness that he first appeared in Court, &c. We have his letter yet among our old papers and we think his note too. The letter concluded by declaring that he would hold no further intercourse with us except on matters "strictly professional."

This was a hard lesson to read to a young barrister. It may have done him some good, but we think the Hillsboro' Bar will testify that he was only a little improved in his professional acts and manners. Let us have "satisfaction and peace."

"THE KING CAN DO NO WRONG."

This is a doctrine which for political considerations is asserted to be true of the King of England and of the "sovereign of the State" in all countries. Self-preservation is its root, but in Republics where the sovereignty is held by the people, no madcap statesman or pettifogging lawyer has ever pretended until now, that the principle could be applied to any office holder from the President down. The responsibility of every man to law, is an essential attribute of Republics, and the moment that the President or a Governor ceases to be responsible to law and to be held amenable to the Courts for all its infractions, as is the case of every other citizen, the government ceases to be Republican.

It is not a new thing that Gov. Holden should claim to be above law, an irresponsible agent of the sovereignty of the people. Either his utter ignorance of law or his utter disregard of it, has been exhibited almost every week of his incumbency as Governor. He seems to have imbibed the idea at the outset, that his powers were plenipotentiary, that the "higher law" or his own bad will should guide him, or that he should not be in the least restrained from doing anything however lawless, which would perpetuate his own power or that of the Radical party.

Is it at all surprising then, that a Governor that should successfully beard the Chief Justice of the State in two cases, ignoring his amenability to law and defying the judicial power, as he did in the case of the first quarrel with the Judge, when the Governor used "cuss words," and swore that his officers should be unmolested, and in the late habeas corpus case, should now hold, since he is re-assured by his faithful Kirk and Clarke, that "Benzoni is still King," that he, the imperial W. W. Holden, should claim to be above the reach of a writ or any legal process. The friends of centralization at Washington may well doubt the practicability of that new doctrine, if the Governors of the States claim to be sovereign.

But it ought to surprise every sensible man in North Carolina and the whole country that Supreme Court Judges should invite a discussion upon so simple a proposition of law, as whether or not the Judicial authority can arrest the Executive. Holden's pratings in his organ or anywhere else on such a point, ought not to surprise any one. But the public ought to be surprised at the request of the Supreme Court Judges and equally so at counsel, who would presume to call in question Gov. Holden's entire and complete amenability to law at all times and all occasions, but especially is he liable to a writ from the injuries done to our people through the agency of Kirk and his other tools. He is morover liable to impeachment not only for misfeasance but for daring malfeasance in office and for treason to the State.

DR. TARPLEY AND JUDGE PEARSON.

Dr. Tarpley is a man of high character and stands well as a christian gentleman.—We take him to be all of sixty years of age. He belonged to a secret political society.—A witness of notoriously bad character testified that at a meeting he proposed to kill a negro. A witness of good character proved that the Dr. was not at the meeting at all. Pearson bound Tarpley over to Graham Court in a sum of two thousand dollars. He also bound him in the sum of $10,000 to answer to the charge of murder before him at his home at Richmond Hill, in Yadkin county a distance of 140 miles from this city not accessible to railroad, telegraph or stage. Judge Battle subsequently prevailed upon his Honor to allow Dr. Tarpley to appear at Graham instead of Richmond Hill.

We have no hesitation in saying the order to appear at Richmond Hill savours more of injustice, drunkenness or oppression, than a desire to administer justice to the citizen. The Judge may have been sober when he made the order, but simply reading the order reminds us of his condition when he introduced Col. Gaither on Fayetteville street to Billy Henderson as the man charged with stealing Darr's mule and Ben Kittrell's law books. We must thank Coleman for one thing. His drunkenness it is said caused the passage of a law making official drunkenness impeachable. By this act we can get clear of nearly half of the present drunken judiciary.

KIRK'S LAMBS.—We are told that Lt. Honeycutt, of Kirk's command, the scoundrel who arrested us, was arrested by order of Court Martial, some time since, on the charge of stealing flour and bacon from the Commissary of the command. He managed to get his trial deferred until he got his pay, and has since absconded. We regret this as we have obtained, and intended to arrest him on a bench warrant.

POPULATION OF FORSYTH.—Mr. Vest, census taker of Forsyth county, has furnished the Salem Press with a synopsis, from which we learn there are, Families 2,533; Persons 13,042; Voters 3,496.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

FRIDAY MORNING, Sept. 2nd, 1870.

Court sat at 9 o'clock, Justices Dick and Settle present.

The case of the State vs. Daniel Patton and Jerry Whitsell, for whipping one Wm. Long, colored, was taken up.

Wm. R. Tickle was sworn and testified. Belonged to the White Brotherhood; joined in July 1869; was chief of the camp; there was no chief when I joined; was elected chief at the time of joining. Camp was in the Northern part of the county, near the Guilford line; (witness gave names of several who were members, including those of the defendants.)

Long was whipped in October or November, 1869; he was accused of breaking into Daniel Patton's house and stealing articles from it. The camp met and determined to whip him, if Patton said he did it; Patton was sent for and said he believed he did it and they went and whipped him; gave him about 25 stripes, he acknowledged he broke into the house; that his brother hired him to do it; Patton was not at the whipping; he had nothing to do with it.

The oath I took had nothing in it but to keep the secrets of the organization; the organization was political; it was Conservative; so far as politics were concerned there was no necessity for disguise; they were only used when they commenced whipping; we never received all the oath; ours was not a regular camp; Peter Hughes started it, before he moved from Guilford; he came down for the purpose; it had no by-laws; it occupied about five miles square, on the North side of the railroad; don't know whether it was one of the ten spoken of or not; there were not more than 25 members. The disguises were not intended to frighten any body to keep them from voting, but to prevent being known.

CROSS EXAMINED.

Somers initiated me, though Hughes was present; the oath required me not to reveal who initiated me, to keep the secrets, and that I did not belong to the Union League, the Heroes of America, the Grand Army of the Republic, or to any other order whose aim and object was to destroy the rights of the people and establish negro equality, and to obey the Chiefs in all calls and summonses. Understood that this meant to obey summonses to the meetings of the Camp. Hughes told me that he and Steiner were the first that were ever initiated in the State. About the last of March or the first of April last the disguises were burned and the camp disbanded; at that time we met and determined to go nowhere any more, and we have never met or done anything else since. By the middle of April I don't reckon there was a disguise to be found belonging to the camp. The camps of Guilford met in Greensborough about the same time and dissolved; they sent us word, but we had already dissolved. This was a general meeting in Greensborough, at which they agreed to dissolve.

We never went into any other county; never heard of any of our camp going.

Question by the Court. Why did you break up your camp?

Answer. We thought the thing had gone too far; we heard of the murders and whippings in other places and determined to quit the organization; there was nothing in the oath requiring its members to murder or whip.

The case here closed, and the parties were required to give bail each in the sum of $1,000 to answer. The others brought down yesterday gave bonds each in $2,000 to appear at the next term of Alamance Superior Court.

There are no other prisoners now here.

SATURDAY MORNING, Sept. 3, 1870.

Court opened at 10 o'clock, Justices Dick and Settle, presiding.

Judge Merrimon asked to be allowed to offer in the evidence, the Constitution and By-Laws of the Constitutional Union Guard and that of the White Brotherhood, as far as they had any, which he presented. The counsel for the prosecution asked and obtained time to consider the matter.

The case of Albert Murray, William Reddings et al. charged with conspiring to terrify, and placing a coffin in the room of Mr. McAdams, was taken up and the parties recognized in a bond of $2,000 each to appear at the next term of the Alamance Superior Court.

The case of Andrew Sutton, James A. Sutton, et al. charged with whipping Carter Smith's son, Sam (colored,) was taken up and the parties recognized in a bond of $2,000 to appear at the next term of Guilford Superior Court.

For the Sentinel.

MR. LOCAL:—In the SENTINEL of the 13th inst., you speak of having received a "North Carolina Conservative Cling" peach, measuring twelve inches in diameter. A pretty big peach—over thirty-six inches in circumference! It straitway reminded me of the giant trees in California. At first, I thought it must have been a misprint, that you intended circumference instead of diameter; but a moment's reflection suggested that such a mammoth of a peach might be possible. I reasoned thusly: Two years ago the Conservative party in North Carolina was not larger than a mustard seed in comparison with the Radical party, a "punkin" seed; but for the last twelve months it had been growing so rapidly that even its most ardent advocates are astonished at the size. You can scarcely find a woman or a child in Western North Carolina that does not belong to the Conservative party. It is now one of the largest of seeds. When the ladies and children, en masse, turn against a party, it cannot long stand. "Windy Billy" recently declared such to be the fact relative to the Radical party in this State, and thus he accounts for their defeat. Excepting the officeholders and officeseekers, nearly every body rejoices over the great increase and triumph of the Conservative party.

Mother earth has done her duty this season. She has brought forth a bountiful crop of fruits, of all kinds, vegetables, wheat, oats, and corn. A million hearts ought to rise up and bless the God of nature for his bountiful gifts.

Your large peach seems to have caught the Conservative spirit, a spirit of progress and growth. I should think about two of them would fill your basket. You will please see to it, that the seed of these peaches be scattered far and wide over Carolina's faithful soil, and at the next election, two years hence, we will produce some peaches large enough to crush the last gem of the Radical peaches, which, say one of my neighbors, are about the size of a wooden nutmeg—½ inch in diameter

RANDOLPH.

The war in Europe is interfering sadly with education. Every college, German University and school is closed. The 2,000 students of Berlin, the 1,500 of Heidelburg, the 1,000 of Bonn have all gone to the war. The professors can find no persons to listen to their lectures, and stay at home. Heidelburg is turned into a hospital, and every student's room contains an hospital bed. In Switzerland schools attended by French and German students are broken up. French students have joined the French army, and German students the German army.

The Conservatives of Lenoir county are to have their celebration on next Thursday, 8th inst.

TO THE GOVERNOR.

Now that the most perplexing part of your administration has been entrusted to Col. Kirk, you will, of course, have time to read such correspondence as may be directed to you through the press and otherwise. In common with many others here and there, I feel anxious to pay my respects to the Governor of the State. You will pardon the freedom with which I write, being a stranger to you personally, for there are some things I wanted to tell you some time ago, but had not the opportunity, and now several other things have been added to the stock.

The people have spoken out against you, Governor, in a way not to be misunderstood nor resisted. The fact is, they were tired of you long before you were talked of for Governor. (But when you were talked of for that office the talk always commenced with yourself, as you will remember). It was thought, and perhaps with some show of reason, that a man who had published the Standard for so many years, and had breathed the instinct of lying into all its types and fixtures, until it had become the synonyme for lying wherever circulated, would follow his chosen profession in whatever station he might fill; "Lying Standard" gives us an unfortunate and contradictory coupling together of words; but such is fame.

The first time I ever saw you, Governor, was in '61. It was at Kittrells, on the R. & G. Railroad. You had come down to visit the b'hoys of the 2nd N. C. Cavalry, and encourage the Confederates. I remember how you walked up and down the depot shed, arming a certain Colonel whose name I will not call. The cane you had then was a bent hickory, and gave but feeble promise of the gold head you have since toted around. The next time I saw your Excellency you was standing in the front door of the Standard office. Prompted by the spirit of curiosity, I had gone that way in the hope of seeing you, and being able to decide whether the description given of your personal appearance was correct. A careful survey of your person as you stood erect in the door, satisfied me that but for the wisdom of our laws which give to every man, or did give before your day, a trial by jury, according to evidence, your Excellency would either have been aired in some jail yard or strangled in the cradle long ago.

The next time I saw your Excellency was last October at the Henderson Fair. It had been noised that you were in the crowd. Soon I saw you with the gold headed cane, which you seemed to be twirling about to aid you in the effort to appear easy in your manners, and to look Governish. You were seated in a neat carriage, perhaps the only decent turn out in ten miles of the place owned by a Rad. I said to my friend Mr. P., from Warren, "the Governor is here, do you know him?" "I can't say that I do," said Mr. P., with a sort of indignant curl of the lip; "but I hope you don't propose to introduce me to him, do you?" "By no means," said I, "and I hope you don't propose to introduce me to him, either!" Thus we balanced accounts.

Then I heard a gentleman at my elbow say to another: "Don't you want to see the meanest man in North Carolina? Yonder he is!" And he pointed to your Excellency. It is not extravagant to say that this opinion was concurred in by nine out of every ten persons present, who knew your history. There never was, perhaps, a more striking conjunction of excellency and meanness in the same person; the former, official and accidental; the latter, personal and habitual. Yes;

"Nature looks back, with conscious error, sad,
On such a tarnished blot as she has made."

The sacred Scriptures in giving the different characteristics of a good man, add this: "In whose eyes a vile person is contemned;" and you, perhaps, are the only individual to whom every eye would naturally turn as best entitled to the appellation "VILE." Every sincere prayer that has been offered up in North Carolina since you became Governor, has been an appeal to heaven to bring your dynasty to a close.—He whose name you have taken in vain in swearing to maintain the Constitution and Laws which you have trampled under foot has his bridle in your jaws, as you begin to feel already, and in his word your doom is plainly written: "Thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence. Therefore thus saith the Lord, they shall not lament for him, saying, ah, my brother! they shall not lament for him, saying, ah Lord, or ah, his glory. He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem."

Our people have shown an extraordinary degree of forbearance while wearing the curse which your administration has bound upon their necks, especially when we consider the advice they have received from other quarters. A lady of this State wrote to a New York editor asking him what he would do if he had to live under such a Governor as Holden. His reply was, "we think we would kill the scoundrel, if we could, and if we could not, we think we would kill ourselves." The killing has been done sure enough. The only noble and disinterested act you can now do is this: Have your life insured for the amount which you and your party have stolen from the Treasury, deposit the policy with the Treasurer for the benefit of the State, and go hang yourself. Amen.

A TRIP UP THE COUNTRY—TRINITY COLLEGE.

Editor Sentinel—DEAR SIR: In passing up the country a few days ago, through Montgomery and Randolph, I was struck with the difference in the appearance of the crops, in different localities, showing that in some neighborhoods there had been little rain, whilst in others there had been a superabundance, especially in Randolph, though in Montgomery the crops are pretty good, especially cotton crops, considering the dearth of rain latterly, for we are now suffering for rain. Yet the crops in Randolph, on the line of our travel, were excellent, and so promising that I was told that corn could now be engaged for fifty cents per bushel.

The fruit crop is also pretty good, and there is great industry and activity shown in preparing it for the markets; large quantities will be shipped and sold North from various points of the N. C. Railroad.

We visited Trinity College, being our first visit, and was struck with its pleasant and beautiful location, and the hospitality of the citizens there and in the vicinity.

It was about the beginning of the present session there, and I found Dr. Craven busily engaged in the reception of the students, and in assigning them to their various studies, classes, &c.

The College is in a flourishing condition, and it is contemplated to enlarge it considerably, as soon as possible. Under the management of its present able and efficient faculty, headed by its indefatigable President, Dr. Craven, Trinity College bids fair to be one of the best institutions in the South. I learn there will be upwards of two hundred students the present session.

On leaving Trinity, we concluded to visit our friend John D., in the vicinity of Hopewell Church, who gave us a cordial reception, and whose hospitality was unbounded. We found his lady, Mrs. D., quite an intelligent lady, and posted in the news of the day. She reads the SENTINEL thoroughly, (as all ladies ought to do,) and strongly sympathized with you, whilst you were a prisoner, and remarked to us, "that to Josiah Turner and the SENTINEL, we are indebted for our brilliant political victory in the State."

I find the ladies generally everywhere to be good Conservatives, and denunciators of Holden's administration, and especially his military movement.

In passing Hopewell Church, about four miles from Trinity, we concluded to rest a few minutes, and view the beautiful cemetery there, the names of those who sleep the sleep of death in that beautiful place were familiar to us, but all strangers, excepting one; and that was the name of JULIAN ELDER LEACH, Esq. who was a brother of Hon. J. M. Leach, and lies entombed beside his venerable father William Leach.

He was a talented and promising young gentleman, and was cut down in the midst of his usefulness, in the bloom of manhood, universally beloved, and whose fate was publicly mourned.

On arriving home, I learned that you and all the prisoners had been released. I rejoice, Sir, in common, with my Conservative friends that you are restored to your distressed family, and at your post again, battling for the cause of truth and an outraged people, and may the time speedily arrive when you may occupy the position of the Tyrant who so much disgraces it, by a course of wickedness unparalleled in history.

I forgot to mention, that your old friend Dr. M. of Montgomery Co. was so elated at our recent victory, that he took several of his friends and went up on Jo's Mountain, and exploded several trees in honor of the victory; the explosion was heard for several miles around.

Yours truly,

VIATOR.

THE UHLANS.—The German cavalry are composed of cuirassiers, dragoons, hussars and uhlans. The last named, who seem to alarm the French so much, are lancers. They are a part of the regular cavalry force, lightly armed, well mounted, and are probably to make raids in the country in advance of the German line of march. Therefore they naturally excite unusual and wide-spread terror. But they are only German cavalry. The Germans seemed to have learned from our success in making "raids" during the last war how easy and how effective it is to harass, with competent cavalry, the enemy's country.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" so well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two iron bars square from bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. With this Press TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH ITS EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint. It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet · Size Bale 4½ feet x26x28x50in; wt. Bale 400 to 500 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

PITTSBORO', N. C., May 6th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press." I purchased from you last season, and consider it to be the best Press I ever saw. Having packed bales to weigh from five hundred and ninety (590) to six hundred and twelve pounds (612.) I consider it the best and most durable Press I ever saw used, and can cheerfully recommend its use to the farmers of North Carolina.

Yours truly,
C. W. SPEED.

FRANKLINTON, N. C., April 16th, 1870.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the "Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

Yours very respectfully,
JAS. A. WILDER.

RIVER LAWN, CUMBERLAND Co., N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H. BRIGGS, Esq: Dear Sir.—In reply to yours of the 13th asking how I was pleased with the Utley Press I used last season, I would say that it gave entire satisfaction.

Respectfully yours,
CHAS. H. BLOCKER.

HILLSBORO', N. C., April 22nd, 1870.

THOS. H BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: SIR—I have used "Utley's Cotton Press" for baling for some months. It works well and gives entire satisfaction. I regard it as the best Gin I have seen.

Respectfully,
E. H. FOUCE.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 18th, 1870.

T. H. BRIGGS, Esq., Raleigh, N. C.: Dear Sir:—I used the "Utley Cotton Press" I purchased from you last season. I packed my own crop of cotton also other crops for my neighbors, making in all one hundred bales. I consider it superior in all respects to any Press I have ever seen, and that it is every thing the patentee represents. I packed bales weighing from four hundred to five hundred and ninety-seven pounds.

Yours truly,
W. T. HOWLE.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—On Saturday morning last about 12 o'clock, Jacob Grausman, aged about 7 years, son of M. Grausman, Esq., of this city, while playing about the freight train at the North Carolina depot, met with a sad accident. It seems that little Jacob without the knowledge of his parents, left his home in the morning and went to the depot, where large numbers of little boys are in the dangerous habit of leaping on and off the passing trains, and when the freight train arrived would jump upon the cars as they were being shifted from place to place. At the time of the accident, the little sufferer was riding on the platform of one of the cars, when a sudden jerk of the train threw him under the wheels, which severed both of his legs just below the knees. No hope of his recovery is entertained.

Let each father and mother imagine the victim to be their child. A word to the wise, &c.

P. S. We learn since the above was written that the right leg was broken and the left crushed about the ankle. He died in about four hours after the accident.

FIRST BALE.—The first bale of new cotton for Wake County, reached the market here this morning. It was raised, picked and ginned on the farm of Mr. Jeff Fisher, near this city, will class about "middling," and was sold to our enterprising Commission Merchant, Lynn Adams, for 20 cents per pound. Success to Wake farmers and Raleigh merchants!

A BOTTLE OF WINE.—The Local returns his profoundest thanks to Mrs. J. M. Perkinson, of Wake, for a bottle of very superior grape wine, of her own manufacture, sent him on Saturday. Such tokens of kindly remembrances are cheerished and will be long remembered, and call forth the sincerest wishes of the recipient for the health and happiness of the donor.

BUILDING UP.—Our friend on Market Square, George T. Stronach, Esq., don't intend that any body shall be looking down his chimney to see what is going on, so he has set the brick masons to work to run up his store another story. This is rendered necessary in order to make room for the large quantity of goods his increasing trade requires him to keep on hand.

A HAUL BY THE POLICE.—We understand that the police made a haul, on Friday night, of one Captain, one Lieutenant, three non-commissioned officers, and one private, of the "First North Carolina State Troops," for disturbance of the peace, and lodged them in the guard house. On Saturday morning they were up before His Honor, Mayor Harrison, who fined each $5. If they go on at that rate they will want the injunction dissolved at an early day.

COMMISSIONERS' MEETING.—The City Commissioners held their regular monthly meeting on the 1st inst. We notice from the published proceedings in their organ, that accounts, &c., allowed for last month, amounted to $3,355.26, and one account for candles, of $44.70, laid over. After enumerating the objects for these allowances, salaries, night police and work on the street, the general statement is given, "for sundry other accounts making $1,524 80." This is something like the "contingencies" in the State Auditor's report. Salaries of officers, pay of night police, and street work, which one would suppose are the main items of expense, amount to $1,830. 46, and on the top of this we have "sundry other accounts," $1,524 80! What are these "sundry other accounts" for! Now that the tax payers are being harrassed for their taxes and threatened with distraint for raising them, they would like to know.

Farris must be one of the most useful members of the Board, as we notice that out of fifteen "motions" before the Board, Farris made eight of them. He may be called a moving member. We hope he will move, at the next meeting, to let the tax payers know what these "sundry other accounts" were for, and what nett income the city realizes from the new market house.

We have it from good authority that the indebtedness of the City of Raleigh is between $80,000 and $100,000. We will put it at the lowest figures. On this debt the City is paying annually 8 per cent. interest, that is 6 400. Taking August as an average of the monthly expenses, ($3,355.26) we have for the ordinary expenses of the City for the year, $40,263.12. Put this sum and the annual interest together and we find that the tax payers of Raleigh are saddled with a yearly burden of $46,663.12 —an amount equal to the entire expenses of the State Government not many decades since. What do you all think of it? With these facts staring us in the face, these "sundry other accounts" becomes a question of importance.

PHALON'S "VITALIA," although transparent and colorless, will darken gray hair to the exact shade it was before it began to fade! Among the triumphs of toilet chemistry it stands preeminent. It is clear and sweet smelling, and its name already is a "household word."

Sold by all druggists and fancy goods dealers.

It is rumored that Judge Watts, of the 6th Judicial District, is about to resign, and it is hinted by the Tarboro southerner that fears of coming trouble about the $5,000 bribe he was said to have accepted, have something to do with his resignation.

A NEW FEATURE.

On Thursday afternoon of the present week, Josiah Turner, Jr., made affidavit before Justices Dick and Settle, of the Supreme Court Bench, and demanded a bench warrant against W. W. Holden, George W. Kirk, Geo. B. Burgen and one Hunnicut, white, and Alexander Ruffin, colored, for unlawful arrest and confinement in prison, inhuman treatment, &c.

The Justices invited a discussion of the question, especially as to the power of the Judiciary to arrest the Chief Executive officer of the State, and secondly, the status of the two Counties that have been declared in insurrection.

On Friday Mr. Bailey argued the questions, taking the ground that the Governor cannot be arrested, and accordingly, that civil process cannot be executed in the insurrectionary counties, (although they have been executing bench warrants in Alamance for the last two weeks.) He was evidently travelling up heavy grades in his effort.

Judge Battle took the opposite ground and in a short and telling argument demolished the monstrous theory contended for, that any man in this county is too exalted to be amenable for his acts to the laws of the land. Every one who listened, was convinced of the truth of the position taken by Judge Battle, except those who did not intend to be convinced.

On Saturday morning the Justices announced their decision, granting bench warrants against all the parties included in the affidavit except Governor Holden.—Justice Dick, in rendering the decision, which was concurred in by Justice Settle, took the ground that a warrant cannot issue against the Governor for an excess of authority in the discharge of his executive functions. For any charge of this kind, the Court of Impeachment is the proper forum for inquiry into the abuse of executive authority.

The warrants against the other parties were issued with instructions to be executed any where in the State except in the counties of Alamance and Caswell.

We give this simple statement of facts in this case—comments hereafter. Thus, so far as these two legal lights are concerned, we have a new feature introduced in the doctrine of legal accountability in this country.

AMERICAN RAILWAY MASTER MECHANICS' ASSOCIATION.—This association held its last annual convention in Pittsburg, Pa., on the 15th and 16th of September 1869.—From a published report of the proceedings now before us, we notice that, while the North and Northwest was very fully and ably represented in the meeting, the South has but few names in the list. Among those from the South is that of our fellow citizen, J. B. Gayle, Esq., Master Machinist of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company, a gentleman of superior mechanical attainments and of fine social qualities, to whose labors and efforts the Association was indebted for much information, not only in regard to the railroad system of his section, but for practical hints in the economizing of labor and power in the material department of Railroading.

The next annual Convention of the Association will be held in Philadelphia on the 14th of the present month, and we learn from Mr. Gayle that he expects to be present. We hope others of our intelligent Southern Master Mechanics will go also.—Let the South be fully represented, so the world may know that we are not so deficient in this department, as neglect in this respect has heretofore led the world to believe we are.

The Salem Press tells the following snake story:

A few afternoons since one of our respected Winston dames had occasion to enter her bed room, and, upon looking towards the bed she was seized with sudden terror; for there, upon the white counterpane, lay a huge snake comfortably coiled, and enjoying an afternoon nap as only a snake can. Rushing from the room, she called loudly to her spouse who at once seized a broom handle with a variety of other warlike implements, and made for the bed.—A few well directed strokes "did" for the snake, who seemed to take it as passively as if he was under a dose of Mrs. Winslow's soothing syrup. A nearer inspection, and lo! his snakeship turned out to be nothing more or less than one of those long braids or coils of hair which ladies now use to twist back of their heads, and come the Grecian style. It belonged to the lady herself, and it is veritably believed that scamp of a husband put it where it was found, although "deponent saith not."

The Shivering Season.

The loss to the laboring classes of the United States caused by fever and ague, has been estimated at upwards of two millions of dollars per annum. Whole settlements are sometimes prostrated by the disease, and it is regarded in some localities, as one of those visitations of providence which cannot be avoided. This is a mistake. As certainly as any of the evils which are invited by neglect may be forestalled by precaution—so certainly may an attack of intermittent (or remittent) fever be prevented by invigorating the system with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in advance of the season, at which this malady prevails. Prevention, it is needless to say, is the wisest policy; but it is consoling to know that where time has not been thus taken by the forelock, and the paroxysms have actually commenced, a complete cure may, in all cases, be rapidly effected by the use of this powerful vegetable tonic. The reputation of the Bitters as a specific for dyspepsia, liver complaint, constipation and nervous debility, has in some measure thrown into the shade its merits as a preventive and cure of other ailments, but all who have ever taken it, either as a protection against or a remedy for malarious fevers, will admit that it surpasses in efficiency all the so-called specifics (one ruling quinine,) usually prescribed for these maladies, while it is at the same time entirely harmless and decidedly palatable.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—The Secretary of State has a dispatch from Motley, announcing the surrender of the whole French army at Sedan with the Emperor.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—The Telegram's special London dispatches from the seat of war reported a brilliant Prussian success. Twenty thousand Prussians and ten thousand French lay dead and wounded on the field.

From conflicting telegrams we gather the following: McMahon was moving to the relief of Metz when he was encountered and thrown back by the Germans, who pursued closely. The pursuit involved serious conflicts. There was serious work at Sedan on Tuesday, where McMahon perished on the heights of Vous, near Carignan, whither the Emperor came. On that day thirty thousand of McMahon's troops were attacked between Mouzon and Mouzieres; this was the battle of Beaumont. The French were driven over Mouzon to Mouzon. The encounter on the other bank resulted in driving McMahon from Vous. McMahon faced about on Wednesday between Douzy and Bazeilles and in that severe engagements, the Prussians turned the French right, necessitating their retirement on Sedan, before which they again renewed the fight on Thursday, where they were driven into the fortress at Sedan.

FOREIGN.

BRUSSELLS, Sept. 3.—On yesterday McMahon was completely beaten and shut up in Sedan. His last road to Paris has been cut.

Bazaine has been completely beaten before Metz by Frederick Charles.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 3.—The Prussians who entered Belgium surrendered. The officers of both armies were set at liberty on parole.

BRUSSELLS, Sept. 3.—General Failly has been shot, in consequence says by his own soldiers; another by the order of Prince Napoleon, who has returned to Paris. He refused to obey the decree issued, stripping him of his rank of Prince and Senator.

METTLE, Sept. 3.—The Journals of this city says that the French were utterly defeated.—McMahon and the Emperor are prisoners. The French soldiers massacre their own officers. Many officers escaped into Belgium.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—The journals state that the reported insanity of the King of Prussia is confirmed.

The Journal Officiel of this morning represents every event of the campaign as success of the Emperor.

BEFORE SEDAN, FRIDAY, Sept. 2nd, 1-21 P. M. From the King to the Queen:—A capitulation whereby the whole army are prisoners of war, has just been concluded, with Gent. Wimpfen commanding, instead of Marshal McMahon, who is wounded. The Emperor has surrendered himself to me, as he has no command; left everything to the Regent at Paris. His residence I shall appoint after an interview with him as a rendezvous to be fixed on, immediately. What a course events wan Gods guidance, have taken.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—The Germans are urging William to declare himself Emperor of Germany.

There is great excitement and anxiety to learn whether the surrender involves a cessation of hostilities and the unresisted occupation of Paris.

A dispatch from Berlin says that since Wednesday last Bazaine has sought to escape North, which was always frustrated. It is really believed in Paris that McMahon's action on the offensive, on Thursday, destroyed the Prussian's left, driving the Crown Prince back of the hills of Argnines.

Saturday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3.—Bancroft, Minister to Berlin, telegraphs the State Department that Napoleon in his surrender stipulated that it should be without prejudice to the Paris Regency.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, September 3.—Dispatches have been received from Paris via the French cable, but the Paris agent of the Press is silent whenever in the hands of the Censor who forbids the transcation of political news. The news of surrender caused intense excitement in Northern cities.

The present edition from the Methodist Book Concern was returned to-day by a messenger, who could give no account beyond that he was directed to deliver the packages.

The Tribune's special dispatch dated Tuscumbia Sept. 3, says: There were two battles yesterday. They were bloody but decisive. They began at 6 o'clock in the morning and lasted till 2 P. M. McMahon was driven across the Meuse.

McMahon's surrender is confirmed by a messenger and a number of Germans. The enemy is in force near the frontier.

The Telegram's special says that Bazaine at Metz surrendered when he heard of the disaster to the Emperor and McMahon.

MISSOURI.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 3.—The Radicals have nominated McClurg for Governor. The Liberal Republicans who withdrew, nominated Gratz Brown for Governor.

CANADA.

TORONTO, Sept 3.—Campbells mission to England resulted in giving Canada a voice in the future guarantee of the fishing regulations, and placing Canada claims for Fenian raids on the footing with Alabama claims.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Sept. 3.—Paris telegrams continue to say that McMahon may hold out under the shelter of the fortress, and that Bazaine's position is good. He has had no further provisions nor men. Martial law has been declared in Algieria.

The Russian press is a unit in its sympathy for Prussia.

MENDELSHEIM, Sept. 3.—The Prussians captured an officer and four Chasseurs at the sally from Strasburg. The second parallel is nearly finished.

MAIL-COURT, Sept. 3.—The troops which finally drove Bazaine back into Metz, were the first and second corps and the Landwehr. The conflict occurred around Sergney and Sorreville.

PARIS, Sept. 3.—Nothing official from the armies North. The last battles in the past few days is considered indefinite, though the losses are very heavy. The journals look upon the attack on Paris as impossible now, the Prussians not being able to leave McMahon and Bazaine in their rear. It is well understood in Germany, that Paris instead of making peace will defend itself to the last extremity.

The enrolment of men between 25 and 35 years of age will give in a few days, an additional force of three hundred thousand to the national army.—The entrance of the French army corps into Sedan, cutting telegraphs and Railroads in all directions, is confirmed.

BERLIN, Sept. 3.—A Metz letter dated the 2nd says since the battle of Gravelotte, twelve days had passed without giving the French an opportunity to leave the saddle. The French have been unable to prevent the Germans from seizing chosen positions. The garrison, including citizens and refugees, must number two hundred thousand.

The particulars of the battle of the 1st is still deficient, though as far as is thought it terminated favorably to the French.

The Emperor certainly made a demand for a truce, first by letter and then came in personality and surrendered.

BRUSSELS, Sept 3.—The French in Belgium are about ten thousand with four hundred artillery wagons, two guns and a thousand horses.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 2.—Three thousand French, including one General officer and two Imperial staff officers, crossed the Border and surrendered.

MENDELSHEIM, Sept. 2.—Strasburg opened a violent fire this morning, and made a sortie which was repulsed.

MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Cotton advanced; Sales 500 bales, Middling Uplands 20½; Flour dull; Wheat dull 1 to 3 cents lower; Corn dull 83 to 85; Pork nominal; Lard dull; Kettle 17 to 17½.

Sunday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Mr. Jones, at Brussells telegraphs to the State Department a full confirmation of yesterdays news.

Mr. Washburn telegraphs from Paris to the State Department that they had heard of McMahon's defeat, and the capture of Sedan, but did not know whether the Emperor was a prisoner or in Belgium.

NEW YORK

NEW YORK, September 4.—A cable dispatch from Paris, dated September 4th, says, a Council of Ministers have issued the following proclamation:

To the French People:—A great misfortune has come upon our country. After three days' heroic struggles sustained by the army of Marshal McMahon against three hundred thousand of the enemy. Forty thousand men have been made prisoners. General De Wimpffen who took command of the army in the place of Marshal McMahon was badly wounded and has signed the capitulation. This cruel reverse will not shake our courage. Paris is to-day in a complete state of defence. The military forces of the country will be organized in a few days. A new army will be under the walls of Paris, and another army is forming on the banks of the Loire. Your patriotism your union, and your energy will save France. The Emperor has been made a prisoner in the struggles. The Government in accord with public powers will take all measures required by the gravity of events. Signed, Count de Palikao, Chevreau, Rigault, DeGenouday, Jules Brame, De La Tour, De Auvergne, Grande Perret, Clement Duvernois, De Maccoe Billion, Busault Jerome David of the Council of Ministers.

In the Senate yesterday the Minister of War, stated, we have learned, through various unofficial channels, that Marshal Bazaine failed in his recent attempt to cut himself from hostile armies which held him shut up around Metz. His efforts were heroic the King of Prussia could not help rendering justice to the valor of our soldiers.

McMahon after endeavoring to join Bazaine in the direction of the North, was obliged to return. In the environs of Sedan there were several days of fighting with alternations of success and reverse but we contended against the enemy numerically our superior and in spite of the most energetic efforts, the attempt seems to have terminated in an unfortunate manner for our arms. Other advices of Prussian originate still more unfavorable but do not appear to be worthy of credit in all cases and the government is not willing to give them an appearance of authenticity by communicating them to the public. Our reverses afflict us it is impossible for us to witness without deep emotion, so much courage and so much devotion rendered unavailing; but this spectacle is far from taking away our energy, augments and doubles it—Since the present Cabinet came into power it has had full faith in France and they still remain so strong that with energy and the help of the rest a win may yet have the last word. Let us hope that God will help us and drive the enemy from our soil.

Jerome David added to the above by stating that the defenses of the Capitol were in the best condition, and according to competent judges, were capable of resisting. All as they marched along with swinging stride, saw at once, by men's faces, that something extraordinary was going on. It was soon plain that the troops were in the lightest possible marching order; all their knapsacks were left behind and they were carrying nothing but cloaks strung around their shoulders, except that one or two corps d'armé had retained their camp kettles; but if the camp kettles were left behind, Cartouche cases were then hanging heavily in front of men's belts, unbalanced as they ought to be, to place extraordinary powers in the hands of General Trochu. Count de Palikao and the chamber protested.

[We given the above as we get it. It is confirmatory of the defeat of the French, but we can't help thinking the Prussian agent was drunk or demoralized when he got it up.—ED.]

CHOLERA.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer Bear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dyspepsia Dysentery, Asthma, cures in one night, by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER

Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!
PHALON'S
"VITALIA;"
OR,
Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

We honestly think two boxes of Mebegan's Bankers might be induced to influence even Grant to compassion in regard to the suffering Cubans.

We recommend the Bankers, and know whereof we affirm, for as we write we are consoled with the proud satisfaction of puffing one, and enjoy it hugely.—Norfolk Journal.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY-SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

CASH ASSETS - - - - - - - - $500,000.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Polices on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all their really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

P. F. PESCUD,
